

I strongly oppose the Consumer Bankers Associations request to challenge Indiana's Telephone Privacy law. I appreciate the having a quiet dinner with my family and the freedom the Indiana law has given me and my family. I DO NOT want the CBA members giving anyone the right to call my home without my express permission.